A planner, not a promise

Croatia's naturist coast rewards good judgement. A dedicated camp, a marked FKK section and a cove with local tradition are not the same thing. This planner separates those evidence levels, then helps you build a route that leaves room for ferries, weather and the coast's slower rhythm.

2027

FIRST EDITION

43 profiles 13 camps 30 beaches and shores

WHAT IS CURRENT

The listing set and source links were reviewed in September 2026. The FKK Croatia monthly review cycle continues after publication.

WHAT CHANGES

2027 opening dates, ferry timetables, prices, access restrictions and clothing rules can be published or changed later. Confirm them before booking and again on arrival.

WHO IT IS FOR

Respectful adult travellers, couples, friends and families seeking nature-led naturism - never voyeurism, pressure or spectacle.

FOUR MOODS

Choose the coast before the place

The cleanest itinerary begins with the experience you want, not a pin collection.

EASIEST FIRST TRIP

Istria

Best density of dedicated naturist resorts; simple road transfers; good for a one-base holiday.

Anchor: Rovinj / Vrsar / Porec Pace: 5-7 nights Strongest for: first-timers

MOST VARIED

Kvarner

Island camps, managed day beaches and wilder walk-in coves; ferry choices matter.

Anchor: Krk, Rab or Cres Pace: 7-10 nights Strongest for: island variety

BEST BY BOAT

Dalmatia

Smaller camps and island days; strong rewards for travellers who keep the schedule loose.

Anchor: Hvar or north Dalmatia Pace: 7-10 nights Strongest for: boat days

BEST CITY PAIRING

Dubrovnik

A compact add-on: old-town culture, Lokrum by public boat and a local shore check.

Anchor: Dubrovnik Pace: 2-3 nights Strongest for: a city extension
